JACKSONVILLE, ALA.

Sept. 1, 1859.

Central Ware House, Sept. 1, 1859.

As the period for shipping Cotton is near at hand, we renew our call of attention to the rates of storage and commission of this excellent House which has heretofore transacted the business of their country friends, in a numerous business like and satisfactory, as to insure a continuance of their favors. For particulars of terms, see advertisement in another column.

The Southern Field and Fireside has now closed the first quarter of the first volume, and thus far has more than realized the most sanguine expectations of its warmest friends. Thus far, we are glad to learn, that it has met with liberal encouragement; but its friends must remember that being disconnected with other branches of the business, and almost entirely dependent for support on its subscription list, it takes a large one to sustain it. The enterprising Editors and publisher have spared neither labor or expense to make it equal in every respect to any like work in the Union, and in this have succeeded. One half, or perhaps one fourth of the amount sent out of the three States of Georgia, South Carolina and Alabama, to the city of New York alone for similar papers, would have had place for the Field and Fireside in an independent position. It is published at Augusta Ga., at $2 per annum in advance.

We give particular attention to the card of Messrs. TERNIN & BAKER, Druggists of Rome, Ga., in another column. Country Merchants and physicians, who pass through or transact business in Rome will find it to their interest to purchase their supplies and confer their patronage upon this house, the proprietors of which so deservedly enjoy the confidence of those who have transacted business with them. Physicians also, who take their cots to Rome, would find its convenience and economy to lay in their supplies of leading articles for family use.

Public Lands.—Hon. Jos. S. Wren, Commissioner of the General Land Office has published a notice for the restoration of certain lands to market in the State of Alabama. These lands embrace all the offered lands which lie outside of the railroad from Montgomery, in said State, to the boundary line between Florida and Alabama, in the direction of Pensacola, and "from Selma to Gadsden," situated in the under mentioned townships, which have not been selected in virtue of said grant, or reserved for any purpose whatever, and which were subject to private entry at the date of withdrawal at the ordinary minimum of $1.25 per acre or the graduated prices under the act of August 4th, 1854.

It should be particularly noticed that all the lands lying within six miles on either side of the roads mentioned, are still withheld; but it is hoped that these also will soon be offered for sale, both by the government and the Rail-road Company.

See notice of Commissioner in another column.

Through mistaken information, we last week, in renewing the advertisement of Savage & Burr, Druggists, of Selma, Ala. changed it to G. P. Sawyer. By reference to advertisement, it will be seen that the business is continued by the firm of Savage & Burr.

A LIST OF WONDERS.

Among the thousands of novelties introduced, within the last few years, the following, caught in an abstract from the Patent Office Report, will be of interest:—It appears that Patrice, a black young woman about fifteen years of age, who had been sold as a slave by John Guillot in a town of Honry county, under a bill of sale made to him by one James C. Wilson, was brought before Judge Williams, master of Habs, as he was sent out by Mrs. Cressie and Hicks, the master's wife, who arrived in the town of Alerville on Tuesday the 21st inst. On the trial of the case it was proved that Wilson went to the house of Mrs. Hicks in Columbus, Georgia about the first of last March, where he remained sick for several weeks. On his recovery, he desired to marry the young girl, and finding that her master was opposed to their marriage, he stole his arms and seized his horse to the house of Rev. John Guillot to whom he sold her for a slave. On his return to Columbus, he presented his horse to a gunsmith, who had shot him. And it was, the gentleman had become guilty of a breach of all the principles which are dear to man of honor and integrity.

This incident gives us an interesting glimpse of the peculiar character of Gen. Jackson, and is quite suggestive to persons who make or hear editions of news.

Winter, Portia, son of SLAVES.

The All-Blacking Alab. Banner gives a curious case of villainy. It appears that Patrice, a black young woman about fifteen years of age, who had been sold as a slave by John Guillot in a town of Honry county, under a bill of sale made to him by one James C. Wilson, was brought before Judge Williams, master of Habs, as he was sent out by Mrs. Cressie and Hicks, the master's wife, who arrived in the town of Alerville on Tuesday the 21st inst.

The English Parliament had passed all the estimates for government necessities, and expected to adjourn on the 15th of August.

Volunteers, to the number of 300,000, were to be employed as a naval reserve to enter the English naval service for five years. They will be to the naval service for five years. They will be to the army what the militia is to the army.

The volunteers of the Great Eastern steamship are to be drawn from the men who had enlisted in the navy.

Strikes had taken place among the builders in London, while, becoming more serious, it was expected that for the next few days there would be a general strike throughout the country.

At a recent meeting of the ironmasters of the South, it was agreed to pay the miners a gold coin.

The miners are to receive a gold coin for each ton of iron they work.

There is an invention which picks up peas from a confused heap, turns them around with their heads up, and sticks them in paper in regular rows.

Another goes through the whole process of cigar making, taking in leaves, and turning out finished cigars.

One machine cuts cheese; another severs knives and forks; another rocks the cradle; and seven or eight take in washing and ironing.

There is a parlor chair patented that cannot be tipped back on two legs,

and a railway chair can be tipped back in any position without any legs at all.

Another patent is for a machine that counts passengers in an omnibus and takes their fare. When a very fat lad gets in it counts two and charges double.

There are a variety of guns patented that load themselves; a fishing line that adjusts its own bait, and a rat trap that throws away the rat, and then bait it self and stands in the corner for another.

There is a machine also, by which a man prints, instead of writes his thoughts. It is played like a piano forte.

And speaking of pianos, it is estimated that nine thousand are made every year in the United States, giving constant employment to one thousand nine hundred persons, and costing over two million dollars per annum.

SOM, NOR HAVING BEEN LOVED, OR
Loved, when are needs eyes,
When are needs heart can the soul be
And the lips in gladness part,
There is nothing of bliss in a loving kiss,
And the chain of tenderness
Is often the bind its own.

Each other spell and a doosier joy
Occupies mountain now,
The sun sends his incense fire,
When the heart goes up to the gate of heaven.

And before the throne,
And striking his harp for sins forgiven,
With the Saviour all to own.

It is stretched our lives above;

And we own his care, in grateful prayer;

"Whom not having seen, we love."

We have felt him near for many a year,

When at eve we bent the knee,

That ne'er breath, that glorious faith,

Dear Saviour, come from thee,

When we stood 'tide beside the dying bed,

The dawning hour, he laid his power,

As I hushed the waves of woe.

And still, as we climb the hills of time,

And the lamps of earth grow dim,

We hasten to thy feet to sight,

And away from idols of earthly mould,

Embraced we gaze above,

"Whom, not having seen, we love."

The Chiriqui Gold Diggers.

From the Panama Star and Herald

of the 2d inst., we extract the following interesting intelligence:

The schooner Carolina sailed yesterday evening for the Chiriqui digging with nearly fifty passengers on board.

There is now room for another vessel,

as we learn that several more persons are preparing for a start, who were unable to get ready in time for the Carolina.

A few days more must bring us ac-countried from that region, which will be looked for with anxiety.

Letters received in this city from David, dated July 14th, state that the people from all directions continue to flock to the gold diggings, and that the yield of gold obtained from the

"huncas" continues undiminished.

The Prefect of the department informs the Governor that the elections for Procurator, etc., did not take place on the day appointed, as no electors appeared at the poll, all being too busily engaged at the grave diggings.

A letter received at this office yesterday from Sr. Carlos Wegener, dated

June 24th, though rather out of date, contains a few items worth transcribing:

An old half caste Indian who lives in Dolega, (Robert Delsi, whom you probably know) and who has been in the habit of digging up Indian graves for the sake of the earthenware and pietas de molar, generally found there in took it into his head to dig a little deeper, which brought him to the real grave, where the body is deposited in a coffin of rudely fixed stones, and there

he found the skeleton of the deceased, together with a beautifully worked but gold. Since it has been ascertained that every "hucca" contains gold images in more or less number,

the earthenware and other articles having been buried only half way down, and this explains why, up to the present time, so few of the remains of the bodies had been found in the graves.

One man took out of one grave in our day $1000 worth of things, amongst which were three gold plates, of the size of dessert plates and the thickness of a stout tin plate, an eagle of the size of a span, and many other animals and insects, beautifully manufactured.

This is the richest grave that has been found as yet, but none have been opened that have not produced something. The old man who made the discovery kept his secret for some time, and is reported to have succeeded in accumulating about $4000. The place where the first discovery was made is called Dugola, situated on the other side of the river Piedra, on the road toward the Costa Rica frontier, but as the whole of the foot of the Cordillera in Chiriqui is full of "huncas," it will take many thousand people during many years before the whole will be dug up.

The finding of so much worked in gold in the "huncas" is a positive proof that the country must be very rich in gold, and I have no doubt that as soon as the above facts become known to the real mining public, rich and extensive deposits of the ore will be discovered.

The rivers are now very high and most of them impassable, owing to the rains, otherwise more persons would have started for the diggings. People who come to work here must expect to rough it, live on tajajo dried root and plantains and sleep in the open air; it is no easy matter to dig holes eight to ten feet deep and remove large stones.

All kinds of ghost stories are afloat

among the natives, who report hearing uncertain noises and "ombres" (drams)

in the Cordilleras, which they attribute to his Sable Majesty, who does not wish the graves to be molested, for fear

the dead may not be able to find their bones at the last day; so at least several highly respectable natives have seriously assured me; you can judge for yourself.

Transmigration of Memory.

In the novel of "The Minister's Wooing," occurs the following beautiful passage:

As there was an hour when the fishermen of Galilee saw their Master transfigured, his raiment white and glistening, and his face like the light,

so there hours when our whole mortal life stands forth in celestial radiance. From our daily lot falls off every weed of care, from our heart friends

every speck and stain of earthly infity. Our horizon widens, and blue, and azimuth, and gold touch every object.

Absent friends and friends gone on the last journey stand once more together, bright with an immortal glow, and, like the disciples who saw their

Master floating in the clouds above them, "Lord, it is good to be here!"

How fair the wife, the husband, the absent mother, the gray-haired father, the manly son, the bright eyed daughter!—Seen in the actual present, all have some fault, some flaw,

but absent, we see them in their permanent and better selves.

Our distant home we remember not a dark day, nor

one servile care, nothing but the echo of its holy hymns and the radiance of its bright days—of our father, not one last word, but only the fullness of his manly vigor and noble tenderness—

of our mother, nothing of mortal weakness, but a glorified form of love of our brother, not one teasing, provoking word, brotherly, free from, but the pride beauty of his nobler hours of our sister, our child, only what is fair est and sweetest.

THE AMERICAN WAGON AT COLUMBUS,

Ohio.—This "great borg" has got to the depth of 2025 feet, and is progressing at the rate of four feet in twenty-four hours.

On Saturday, Professor T. G. Wormley made several experiments, with the following results, which he kindly fur-ished us. He says that the pressure per square inch at the bottom is 801 pounds, or 125,000 per square yard.

First Experiment.—Three bottles,

two of them hermetically sealed, were placed in the pump and sunk to the bottom of the bore. When withdrawn they were crushed to powder. The other

, which was closed with a strong cork, had it forced in, and the bottle was pulverized.

Second Experiment.—Two very strong strong-glasses were used. One was crushed; the other, a very small and thick one, was forced half-full of water, but not broken, and the cork remained firmly fixed in the week.

Curious stones are brought in, limited quantities

"How wonderful and grand!" said two or three neighbors who were at her bedside, "while we are still here."

"I could see it now," said "How could she know this?"

"At saw it all and I did not. Oh, tell me, is William dead?"

"Yes, he is dead. The minister, who lived near and having heard the news, had hastened to the house of mourning."

"He was found dead an hour ago by the share, half in the water. He had been shot in the forehead. His body is taken to his mother's where an inquest will be held."

"Oh, William! William!—who could have done this? Dead! William could not have done this?" Dead! William could not have done this?"

"Oh, William! William!—who could have done this? Dead! William could not have done this?"

The death of William Appleton, by violence, in so mysterious a manner, created the most profound excitement throughout the peaceful village. He was beloved and popular, and was not known to have an enemy. He had been found by the banks, his body half in the water; but as his clothing and hair were thoroughly wetted, it was believed he had been thrown in, and floated ashore. The place where he was found was about half way between the village and the residence of Ida Boyd, by the road that led along the winding and shady banks.

"He must have been going to see her, or else coming from there," said a woman who was present as they were holding the inquest. "He was gaged to her, and went to see her every night."

This opinion prevailed. The question now came up, who could have done this? and what could have been the motive?

There was no suspicion of person or motive, and the jury gave in their verdict, "Shot dead, with a pistol or gun, by some person or persons unknown, and then thrown into the river."

Where could a coroner's jury, not own secret, not omnipotent, decide? The funeral took place on the third day, and was attended by a vast concourse of people; for a murder invests death with a fearful mystery, which arouses the deepest sympathies of the human heart, as well as awakens the liveliest curiosity of our nature.

But there were agencies of Providence at work for the discovery of the murderer. The surgeon who had been called to examine and pronounce upon the nature of the wound, had drawn from the officer made by the bullet a piece of paper saturated with the river water. He saw that it was newspaper wadding, which had been driven into the wound behind the ball. He stated to the coroner, from this circumstance, that the assassin must have stood close to his victim, for the wadding to have entered the wound. This assertion threw no light upon the author of the crime, and but little weight with the coroner and his jury. The surgeon who was a shrewd man of the world, and who let nothing escape him, took the wadding home, and, having removed the stains of blood, and dried it, closely examined it, discovered that it was a part of a newspaper called the Evening Star.

Dr Thomas, upon looking carefully at this fragment, compressed his lips, and was for a few moments silent, fixing his keen, grey eyes upon the floor. "The Evening Star," he at length exclaimed, "I wonder who takes it in this village?"

This I am sorry to say, is probably the paper which he probably a clue to the murderer, and I did not wish to make any noise about it, lest the murderer himself might be present at the inquest, and take the alarm. I think I have shown my usual sagacity. Now, with the aid of Providence, I may find out who murdered William Appleton. Poor Ida Boyd! They say it has broken her heart as they were soon to be married. The Evening Star, stay there, bit of paper, he added, until I had further.

As he spoke, he looked at the wadding in a drawer, and putting the key in his pocket, walked out. He took the direction of the post office, which he entered with a faltering step, as if he had been prostrated. The postman, who was seated in his great arm-chair, being a stout, rheumatic man, with iron spectacles, actually reading a copy of the Evening Star.

Dr Thomas was a friend and his physician. After a question or two as to the present state of his health, the medical man said, "A New York paper?"

"Yes, the Star; Noah's paper. They say he is a Jew; but he is a great wit, and a capital writer."

"So've heard. Do you take it?"

"No, he is on the other side of my politics. It comes here to Mrs. Reddington whose husband, you know, was a great politician. You see her name on it."

"Yes, I see. It is such an interesting paper, I suppose many copies of it are taken in the village."

"No. This is the only one taken at this office. It is usually taken out by her son Charles; but he has not been here for several days; so I thought I would pick it up."

"A private," replied the smiling doctor, "which you postmen take, not only with papers but with letters, eh?"

"Ah, doctor, that is a s'cious job!" responded the man of privileges, as he folded up the paper, for at that moment Charles Reddington entered, and asked for his papers and letters.

"So you keep up the old Star subscription, sir. Your father," said the doctor.

The young man answered, with a curl of the lip, "I suppose one can subscribe to what paper he pleases;" and thus saying, he packed his newspaper and went out of the office.

Dr. Thomas wended his way to his own house, slowly and thoughtfully. Charles Reddington was always a son to the President of the Hockville Free-worship, son of a member of Christ's congregation, born in the village, and of good name and fame. Yet he was the only son left, and by the operation of the Holy Ghost, all Christians may be so joined together in unity of spirit, and in the love of peace that they may be an honor to the church.

"It is possible another may have powers of instructing and training youth, but as he will be gone, we shall be without him."

Twenty-six clergymen of Philadelphia (Episcopal, Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist, German Reformed and Dutch Reformed) have united in an address to "Christians of all denominations" in which they propose that the first Monday in October next should be set apart as a day of special prayer that God would grant that his believing elect may be made perfect in one, and that by the operation of the Holy Ghost, all Christians may be so joined together in unity of spirit, and in the love of peace that they may be an honor to the church.

The Aurora seemed to be generally diffused, so as to cover the whole field of vision. The horizon presented the appearance of a lurid glare, caused by a distinct conflagration, and the clouds looked as though they were fringed with blood. The first officer was like a day breaking, many got up and commenced getting breakfast, and were astonished to find that it was not later than 1 or 2 o'clock. From our exchanges we see this phenomenon was observed all over the country. The Aurora Borealis has not heretofore been supposed to manifest such brilliancy in Southern latitudes.

"Tis with heart full of gloom we state, that a precious work of grace has been in progress in Oxford, Ala., for some weeks past, under the preaching of the Rev. R. NAIL D. D. A meeting of most thrilling interest closed at that place on the 1st inst., after a continuance of 11 days—the N. preaches the plain truths of the gospel with his usual earnestness & God was pleased to answer the importunity of the people by a distinct descent of the Holy Ghost, descended in reviving regenerate power, imparting new vigor to professing christians of different names, & bringing many prodigies to the cross of Christ.—We learn that twenty six have already united with the Presbyterian church, fifteen or twenty more have a comfortable home in Christ, and many others are still professed seeking for pardon & eternal life."

Thus he passed as he walked on. The boy he called on the widow, and was shown into the library for the book by Charles himself, who waited pale, and said, "I must be cautious. I will call upon Dr. Lewis as one of the Hockville delegation to the festival celebration in this city, on the example of a volume of the Hockville Encyclopedia, which belonged to his husband." This will enable me to look ahead, and perhaps learn something."

RICHARDSON'S

IRISH LINENS,

DAMASKS, DIAPERS, &c.

CONSUMERS OF RICHARDSON'S LIN-ENS, and those desirous of obtaining the GENUINE GOODS, should see that the articles they purchase are sealed with the full name of the firm.

RICHARDSON, SONS & OWDEN,
as a guarantee of the soundness and durability
of their Goods.

This caution is rendered essential, as great numbers of inferior and defective linens are prepared, season after season,
and sold under the name of RICHARDSON

& SONS. However, the undersigned will guarantee that all the articles indicated alike on the American consumer and the manufacturers of the genuine Goods,
will not readily abandon a business's profits, which others can be imposed upon with Goods of a worthless character.

Nelsonville Republican.

Wednesday, Aug. 22, 1859.

A portion of present week's paper is on the outside, by mistake, instead of 22d Sept.

Secretary of the Senate.—John G. Bassett, Editor of the Bardville Journal, is a candidate for Secretary of the Senate at the ensuing session of the State Legislature.

We have no personal acquaintance with Mr. Stokes, but from the ability with which he has edited, we suppose him entirely competent for the office he seeks, and most cordially wish him success, concurritute his qualifications & merits.

Another Difficult with England.—It seems that our government must have periodical difficulties with England, at boundaries, &c. Just now a difficulty is started about the Island of San Juan, lying on the north-west coast of Washington Territory, both governments claiming it, & making military demonstrations for its forcible possession which some fear will terminate in war. Both parties have agreed however to a joint occupation until the two governments come to an understanding & adjustment of the matter. We can only hope that it will be amicably adjusted, as many others have, perhaps more important & threatening.

East Alabama Male College.—We have been favored by Rev. E. J. Hamil, Agent and Trustee, with a pamphlet copy, containing a catalogue of the Officers & Faculty, Regulations, Statutes, &c. of the East Alabama Male College, located at Auburn, Ala.

From this we learn that the Trustees have engaged the services of a full and able Faculty of teachers, and that they have now finished one of the largest and finest College Buildings in the Southern States, and that the Institution is and will be provided with the amplest facilities of Library and Apparatus; and that the Agent has already secured a large endowment, and is still engaged in its extension.

The Town of Auburn is situated on the Rail Road between Montgomery, West Point and Columbus. The location is high and healthy, with good fresh water, and it is easy of access from all quarters.

The exercises this year will begin on the first Wednesday in October next.

This Institution will richly merit and doubtless receive the liberal patronage of the citizens of East Alabama and surrounding country; and its friends have every reason to believe, that under the blessing of Providence it is destined to a career of usefulness and prosperity.

JACKSONVILLE MALE ACADEMY.—We are pleased to learn that this Institution is in a very flourishing condition, having at present about sixty pupils, Mr. F. H. Goorvitz the principal seems to be devoting his best energies to advance the pupils, and best interests of the institution.

The services of Mr. Onissav a graduate of Cambridge University, England, have been secured, in Modern and Ancient Languages. Mr. Osiens has age and experience and seems thus far evidently qualified for the duties he has undertaken.

WILLS VALLEY INSTITUTE, for boys and girls.—The Fall term of this institution, under the superintendence of W. C. Ross, Principal, and C. C. Turner, Assistant, commenced on the 2nd Monday of August.

The Principal and Assistant have been engaged as teachers, for a length of time in one of the first class Colleges of the South, & promise that the course of study prescribed by them will include not only a thorough knowledge of the English branches, but also the more advanced studies pursued in colleges of the present day, so that young men and ladies can there perfect themselves in the accomplishments of a collegiate course.

The Institution is located in a healthy region, surrounded by beautiful & picturesque scenery, and far removed from temptations to dissipation or extravagance. It has also all the advantages of economy in board and tuition.

We invite particular attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Burnet, Hendrix & Walker, wholesale grocers and Commission Merchants of Memphis, Tenn.

Memphis, next to New Orleans, is perhaps the best and cheapest grocery market in the Southwest, and there are many facilities for transportation from that point. Groceries can be shipped from there to Rome, or any point on the Coosa river from Greenport up, where ever purchasers may desire.

Messrs. Burnet and Hendrix are well and favorably known to many of the citizens of this and Cherokee County, Ala. and Rome, Ga. We know they are anxious to secure the trade of their old friends and acquaintances, and have little doubt but what they will sell their groceries cheaper, and do more for their accommodation, than they can have done in any other market. To prove this give them a call at Memphis, and send your orders for such articles as you may need, with directions to what point you wish them shipped.

THE ZURICH CONFERENCE.—The following is from the Paris correspondent of the London News:

First Announcements.—We call the attention of our readers in this place and vicinity to the announcement, in another column, of the arrival of New goods at Kains Cheap Emporium. We know from having passed through his store and inspected his stock that it is very large and embraces a variety of new and beautiful goods. Below and above stairs, shelves, drawers, counters and bars, are crammed and loaded with staple and fancy goods, which he offers at low prices for cash on time. But don't take our word for it and examine for yourselves.

A Few Words to our Distant Subscribers.

We send a number of papers to subscribers scattered about in Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas and other States. Each of these papers have to be separately enveloped and directed, which requires more of both labor and expense than others; and we are sorry to say that many of these subscribers, whom we have implicitly trusted, at so great a distance, have not been so prompt as they ought to have been, in forwarding the subscription dues. Some of them however have been very prompt, forwarding as much as two years in advance, to whom we tender sincere thanks. We write their names always, with a cheerful confidence, that they will not accept our labor and means without remuneration, with the additional depressing sense of neglect and wrong. But to another class, some of whom are in arrears one year and some longer, we say, after giving this notice time to be responded to, if we receive nothing from them, we shall sweep their names indiscriminately from the list.

Every paper sent to a distant part of this State, or out of the State, ought to be paid for in advance, or at least within the first three or six months, and we will continue no papers in future that are not paid at least within the year.

Where there is no suitable currency to be procured, they can forward the amount in postage stamps, or in gold dollars. Let me hear from you soon, or you will cease to hear from us.

Rail Road from Atlanta to Jacksonville.

We give place, very cheerfully this week, to the proceedings of a rail road meeting, recently held by the public spirited citizens of the vicinity of Pine Grove, in Harrison Co. Ga.

This meeting takes the correct view of the subject, and are correct in the opinion that the most practical and profitable railroad connection would be that of a direct line from Atlanta to Jacksonville.

This would be a very important road to this place, and if finished, together with others projected, would certainly make Jacksonville an important inland city, and add many millions to the value of real estate in town and country.

We hope that sin in the bell has been put in motion that it will be kept ringing, and that at all the places where meetings are proposed to be held, a liberal spirit will be manifested, and that the friends of the project will be met in like spirit all along the line in this county.

The services of Mr. Onissav a graduate of Cambridge University, England, have been secured, in Modern and Ancient Languages. Mr. Osiens has age and experience and seems thus far evidently qualified for the duties he has undertaken.

Selma Nursery.—We neglected the proper time, but it is not too late now, to call the attention of persons who wish to start fine orchards or vineyards to the advertisement of Messrs. Brasier & Co. of Selma, Ala.

We are glad to see a spirit of improvement, in this respect, springing up in our County. Selma is the most convenient place from which shrubbery, fruit trees and vines can be obtained; and by procuring them so near home they will not be liable to imposition, and may have any mistakes corrected. We hope the Selma Nursery will be liberally patronized by our farmers and gardeners.

Rail for Sale.—Mr. D. F. Ledbetter offers for sale a valuable tract of land lying four or five miles north of this place on the Goshen road, containing 160 acres. Any person wishing to purchase a farm of that size, will soon have an opportunity to purchase one better improved or in a higher state of cultivation. For particulars, see advertisement in another column.

New Family Grocery.—We invite attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Smith & Boyd, from which it will be seen, that they have relinquished the traffic in liquors, turned their business entirely into that of a Family Grocery.

It is their purpose to increase their stock of Groceries, as their business will justify, and also to include in it a provision store, containing such articles as Flour, Meal, &c. This will be very convenient to our citizens; and as they have determined from the start, to remain themselves with very small per cents, depending upon large sales for remuneration, we hope, for the interest of them, they will be liberally patronized.

THE ZURICH CONFERENCE.—The following is from the Paris correspondent of the London News:

It is quite plain that the Zurich Conference has come to a dead lock. The presumption and folly of the so-called arrangement proposed by unimpeachable from Villalpando will soon be patent and confessed to all the world. Official people now affect to be quite surprised at the difficulties which broke up the meeting, but it had well got together, and sent off the second Austrian Plenipotentiary, M. de Meyenburg, to Vienna for further instructions. There must probably, they say, be a hitch about the Italian Confederation which meets with opposition both at Rome and Turin; and also about the restoration of the dukes; perhaps, it is said, moreover, the exact position of the Austrian national debt, which is to be settled upon Lombardy cannot be easily agreed upon. Why, of course, these difficulties did not appear, and everybody except the Emperor Napoleon's blunders saw them from the first. Austria, who is a great enemy to the Empire, cannot very well recommend the Emperor to his liege and subjects, nor to the enterprise, with the request that they publish it, and that we hope the citizens on said line will hold their road meetings and favor said project.

The Vienna Gazette, solar from conducting the opinion that the restoration of the Grand Duke was only to be delayed, or perhaps favored by the French Emperor, has him to a pensive engagement in that behalf. That restoration was, it is said, sanctioned by the signature of the two sovereigns, its execution guaranteed by their plighted word, and the power of the two monarchs is the sufficient assurance that the promise will be performed." The Press of Vienna infers from this that the French and Austrian armies will, if necessary, restore the Duke and organize the Italian confederation by force." There are symptoms that the French Emperor is annoyed at the press conference of the Court of Vienna, the result of which is some doing well above what was expected.

One thing is getting a little better but has not made five Dollars for days past. We are holding but bad luck in getting a poor man on the branch that we work on there are men doing well above and below us. Some of them are making from Ten to forty Dollars per day. We may strike something in our claim line, I understand there is about Forty thousand men on the road coming here. If it so goes, some will want bread worse as bad as the first that come started here, for all the mining ground that is discovered yet is taken up, and plenty more men without now. So tell all that will believe what I say, to wait till there are more discovered before they start, unless they want to come and hunt for them. It has rained for the last Ten days. The last snow I saw was the 10th of this month. There are several dying in Mountain city, two miles from here, they call it the mountain fever.

Yours ever, W. M. McDANIEL, To J. W. McDonald, Arbacoochee Ala.

What the Democracy Will Do.

The Memphis Appeal, referring to the meeting of the next National Democratic Convention and its action, says: And again, can it be supposed for a moment that the Democratic party has become so disorganized and divided that its members will fail out and destroy the party on account of the phantom the platform may adopt, provided that platform adheres to the ancient landmarks and well defined principles which have been recognized since the days of Jefferson? And will it be supposed that the delegates assembled from all the States and representing the masses of the party from every section, contemplate a deliberate desertion of and treachery to our time honored and long cherished principles? That there will be a re-affirmation of the platform adopted at Cincinnati, and approved by the American people at the ballot box in 1856, we have not a doubt, with such actions as circumstances may demand.

Gen. Beauregard had ordered the troops from Tampa and then immediately neighborhood, to march to San Luis Potosi, which he intends to be the general rendezvous of the Liberals. He calls a meeting of the Army to-morrow.

Restoration of certain Lands to Market in the State of Alabama.

THE grant of lands made by the acts of Congress of March 3d, 1850, and June 3d, 1856, to the State of Alabama, to aid in the construction of certain railroads therein situated, having been so far adjusted as to authorize the release from withdrawal of the lands hereinafter described, notice is hereby given that all persons having claims against the said lands, except as follows, are hereby released:

THE land of one John W. Rader, in the Town of Jacksonville, Alabama, in the first Monday in October next, the described land, to-wit: A Tract of land bounded on the north by Tallahatchie Creek, and on the south by the head of said creek, a width of six miles on each side of the road from Montgomery, in said State, the boundary line between Florida and Alabama in the direction of Pensacola.

From Selma, Gadsden, and in the direction of the said town, which had not been selected in said grant, or recently for any purpose whatever, and which were subject to private entry at the date of withdrawal at the ordinary minimum of 25 per acre, as now established, and then, when withdrawn, will be released to private entry on the days and at the hours hereinafter specified, at the ordinary sum of $1 25 per acre, or at the prices they may have graduated at the date of withdrawal.

A Few Words to our Distant Subscribers.

We send a number of papers to subscribers scattered about in Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas and other States. Each of these papers have to be separately enveloped and directed, which requires more of both labor and expense than others; and we are sorry to say that many of these subscribers whom we have implicitly trusted, at so great a distance, have not been so prompt as they ought to have been, in forwarding the subscription dues. Some of them however have been very prompt, forwarding as much as two years in advance, to whom we tender sincere thanks. We write their names always, with a cheerful confidence, that they will not accept our labor and means without remuneration, with the additional depressing sense of neglect and wrong. But to another class, some of whom are in arrears one year, and some longer, we say; after giving this notice time to be responded to, if we receive nothing from them, we shall sweep their names indiscriminately from the list.

Every paper sent to a distant part of this State, or out of the State, ought to be paid for in advance, or at least within the first three or six months, and we will continue no papers in future that are not paid at least within the year.

Where there is no suitable currency to be procured, they can forward the amount in postage stamp or in gold dollars. Let us hear from you soon, or you will cease to hear from us.

Our Rail Road.

The Alabama and Tennessee River Railroad is finished to the Town of Talladega, a distance of 110 miles from Selma, and the cars this day commence running regularly to that place.

On the 12th of October, the enterprising and public spirited citizens of Talladega county, will give a large barbecue and dinner, and invite every person that can come and join with them in celebrating the completion of the road to the Town of Talladega.

The 12th will be a day of great festivity and rejoicing in Talladega. We are informed that several distinguished gentlemen will be invited to address the people on that day. Also, that two volunteer companies from Selma are invited, and will be in attendance in full uniform, with "baby wakers" and band of music.

Woodward & White

Inform their friends in to-day's paper, of the reception of their Fall and Winter stock of Goods.

For us to attempt any thing in the way of commendation of this long established and well and favorably known house, would be like attempting to paint the rose or gild refined gold. We will say, however, that their stock is unusually large and select; and that they are prepared to furnish all with every variety of goods upon uniformly reasonable terms.

The particular attention of Planters is invited to their stock of Bagging & Ropes, which they are selling very low.

They have also received a fresh stock of choice Groceries.

Give them a call,

And buy part of all.

THE SOUTHERN TEACHER, published at Montgomery and edited by Prof. W. S. Barton, comes to us this week, filled with able written and well selected articles.

We are glad to see this periodical, for the South has felt the need of a work of this kind.

Professor Barton, who has had long and successful experience as a teacher, and is the author of a valuable series of School Books, is well qualified for the editorship of this Journal.

We trust every one feeling an interest in the great work of education, will lend a helping hand in its support.

Terms, $1 per annum in advance.

False Prophets.—For a few months past, nearly every Whig or opposition paper we open, seems to be exceedingly exercised in prophesying the speedy dissolution and downfall of the democratic party. But they are not the first false prophets which have appeared in the world; and their prophecies, like imperfect fruits, are always rotten before they are ripe. We have heard of the wish being father to the thought; but in this case, the wish is father to the prophecy; and the parent too of a very numerous and short lived progeny; for no sooner does one batch of such predictions prove false than it is followed by another, their utters being nothing daunted by frequent failures; but it is a wonder that hope so long deferred does not make them sick.

The Faculty then confidently offer to the student seeking a sound medical education, such as will fit him to encounter successfully the diseases of Southern latitudes, opportunities of instruction equal to those of any other institution.

ALABAMA.—We are rejoiced to learn that our old State, Alabama says the Eldorado (Ark.) Times, has again proven true to herself and Southern Rights—has again administered a sound raking to the unruly and refractory compositionists, by sending an entire Democratic delegation to Congress in of the country under democratic rule, with only two or three accidental intermissions, it has increased its population ten fold, and grown from a feeble nation to the fourth power of the world. It has kept its check, by wise, firm, and steady administration of the government, the wild and furious storm of abolition fanaticism, and steered the ship of State safely through even difficult and dangerous; and is today, as we have, notwithstanding all these evil predictions, stronger than at any other period of its previous history.

The principles of the great national democratic party, always have and do now embody the very spirit and genius of our free institutions; and should it ever be totally destroyed, the government must of course go with it; but as its enemies are not likely soon to be gratified in this, we suppose they ought to be indulged in the not very dangerous pleasure of wishing, and hoping, and predicting its ruin.

Land for Sale.—Persons who may wish to purchase a valuable tract of land are referred to the advertisement of Mr. G. C. Mattison, Agent of the Estate of George Mattison, deceased. The tract offered is largely advantageously situated on the road from Oxford to Talladega, & is one of the most valuable in the County. It will soon have the advantage of a railroad passing immediately by it.

The attention of persons who may wish to purchase goods, is invited to the advertisement of Messrs. S. & J. Scott. These gentlemen have laid in a stock of goods, purchased in New York on advantageous terms, selected with care, nearly double what they ever have before. We know they are anxious to increase their trade and business, and for this purpose will give good bargains to their customers. Not to mention other departments, we can state from personal knowledge, that their stock of Boots, Shoes and Brogans, Hats, Caps, &c., is very large, of good quality and offered cheaper than any we have seen since. If you want to be perfectly satisfied that they will give you good bargains just go and examine and price their goods.

Charleston Convention.

There has been for months past, a good deal of what we have considered unprofitable controversy in many democratic papers, respecting the platform to be adopted by, and probable candidates to come before the next national democratic Convention at Charleston. Some of our readers doubtless have thought it very strange that we had so little to say on the subject; we wish here to give a reason for our course.

In the first place we do not think it good policy on the part of our democratic contemporaries, unduly to press the claims of some and displease the claims of others, whose names it is supposed may be presented to the Convention.

A Few Words to our Distant Subscribers.

We send a number of papers to subscribers scattered about in Mississippi, Arkansas, Louisiana, Texas and other States. Each of these papers have to be separately enveloped and directed, which requires more of both labor and expense than others; and we are sorry to say that many of these subscribers whom we have implicitly trusted, at so great a distance, have not been so prompt as they ought to have been, in forwarding the subscription dues. Some of them however have been very prompt, forwarding as much as two years in advance, to whom we tender sincere thanks. We write their names always, with a cheerful confidence, that they will not accept our labor and means without remuneration, with the additional depressing sense of neglect and wrong. But to another class, some of whom are in arrears one year and some longer, we say: after giving this notice time to be responded to, if we receive nothing from them, we shall sweep their names indiscriminately from the list.

Every paper sent to a distant part of this State, or out of the State, ought to be paid for in advance, or at least within the first three or six months, and we will continue no papers in future that are not paid at least within the year.

Where there is no suitable currency to be procured you can forward the amount in postage stamps, or in gold dollars. Let us hear from you, soon, or you will cease to hear from us.

Our Rail Road.

The Alabama and Tennessee River Rail Road is finished to the Town of Talladega, a distance of 110 miles from Selma, and the cars this day commence running regularly to that place.

On the 12th day of October, the enterprising and public spirited citizens of Talladega county, will give a large barbecue and free dinner, and invite every person that can to come and join with them in celebrating the completion of the road to the Town of Talladega.

The 12th will be a day of great festivity and rejoicing in Talladega. We are informed that several distinguished gentlemen will be invited to address the people on that day. Also, that two volunteer companies from Selma are invited, and will be in attendance in full uniform, with "babys' wagers" and band of music.

Woodward & White

Inform their friends in to-day's paper, of the reception of their Fall and Winter stock of Goods.

For us to attempt anything is the way of commendation of this long established and well and favorably known house, would be like attempting to paint the rose or gild refined gold. We will say however, that their stock is unusually large and select; and that they are prepared to furnish all with every variety of goods upon uniformly reasonable terms.

The particular attention of Planters is invited to their stock of Bagging & Rope, which they are selling very low. They have also received a fresh stock of choice Groceries.

Give them a call,

And buy part of all.

THE SOUTHERN TEACHER, published at Montgomery and edited by Prof. W. S. Barton, comes to us this week, filled with ably written and well selected articles.

We are glad to see this periodical, for the South has long felt the need of work of this kind.

Professor Barton, who has had long and successful experience as a teacher, and is the author of a valuable series of School Books, is well qualified for the editorship of this Journal.

We trust every one feeling an interest in the great work of education, will lend a helping hand in its support.

Terms, $1 per annum in advance.

False Prophets.—For a few months past, nearly every Whig or opposition paper we open, seems to be exceedingly exercised in proffering the speedy dissolution and downfall of the democratic party. But they are not the first false prophets which have appeared in the world; and their prophecies, like imperfect fruits, are always rotten before they are ripe. We have heard of the "wish being father to the thought"; but in this case, the wish is father to the prophecy; and the parent too of a very numerous and short lived progeny; for no sooner does one batch of such predictions prove false than it is followed by another, their utters being nothing daunted by frequent failures; but it is a wonder that "hope so long deferred" does not make them heart sick.

It is true that the democratic family has its jars, but not more serious or hard to reconcile than other families equally numerous; and it never yet has been so far irreconcilable as the diseases of Southern latitudes, opportunities of instruction equal to those of any other institution.

ALABAMA.—We are rejoiced to learn that our old native State, Alabama says the Eldorado (Ark.) Times, has again proven true to herself and Southern Rights—has again administered a sound spanking to the unruly and refractory compositionists, by sending an entire delegation to Congress in behalf of the recent election. Every District elected a Democrat. The contest in the 2nd District was as it has been for several years animated and close. That District has been represented by two last terms by Hon. J. F. Dowell and whom a son and more talented Southern Rights man cannot be found in the State. This year Mr. Dowell retires, and David Clapton—a staunch Democrat—was nominated in his stead and has been elected by a handsome majority over Tom Judge, one of the most talented Opposition speakers in the State. This is the second time Mr. Judge has been defeated in that District; and we presume, unless his faith in the charm of a third trial is unshaken, he will retire to the "shades of private life."

But the result in no District in State gives more satisfaction than that of the "bloody Seventh" in the election of Hon. J. L. M. Curry. Sampson W. Harris—an excellent man, has for several years been the Representative of this District. He died in 57 and his place was supplied by Mr. Curry who has been elected for the two last terms, without opposition—He is a young man, perhaps not over thirty-five—but a man whose extraordinary talents, and Southern Rights principles and many straightforward course in Congress, has endeared him to and so completely won the confidence of his constituency that it would be hard, indeed, to fill his place, and an impossibility to defeat him.

The attraction of persons who may wish to purchase a valuable tract of land are referred to the advertisement of Mr. G. C. Mattison, Adm'r. of the Estate of George Mattison, deceased. The tract offered is large, advantageously situated on the road from Oxford to Talladega, & is one of the most valuable in the County. It will soon have the advantage of a rail road passing immediately by it.

The attraction of persons who may wish to purchase Goods, is invited to the advertisement of Messrs. Smith & Self. These gentlemen have had a stock of goods, purchased in New York on advantageous terms, selected with care, nearly double what they ever had before. We know they are anxious to increase their trade and business, and for this purpose will give good bargains to their customers. Not to mention other departments, we can state from personal knowledge, that their stock of Boots, Shoes and Brogans, Hats, Caps, &c., is very large, of good quality and offered cheaper than any we have seen priced. If you want to be perfectly satisfied that they will give you good bargains just go and examine and price their goods.

Charleston Convention.

There has been for months past, a good deal of what we have considered unprofitable controversy in many democratic papers, respecting the platform to be adopted, and probable candidates to come before the next national democratic Convention at Charleston.

Some of our readers doubtless have thought it very strange that we had so little to say on the subject; we wish here to give a reason for our course.

The command had not proceeded when the Indians again attacked, and crossed the legions at the position just left in great numbers. Major Armitage anticipated another attack, held the command, faced by the rear rank and deployed them on the bank of the legions, which was here wide and deep. The whole body of Indians came running up, yelling and whooping and charged furiously upon the command, the bravest of them coming up to within ten or fifteen yards of the men of the rifles; these however held firmly for their tenuity; the steady and well directed fire of the men held them in check when, after thirty minutes hard fighting, Major Armitage ordered the command to charge them, which was done fearlessly. The Indians rallied and broke in every direction, perfectly dismuted, not a yard or sound of any kind was to be heard after this victory was gained. Twenty-three Indians were counted dead near to the position the greatest portion was not reconnoitred. In fact, many of them were seen carrying the charred remains of their party. Every one it is evident, cannot have his choice, and it is unjust to press that choice in advance upon others, or to disparage the merits of true and able democrats, whose names may not even be mentioned in the Convention.

We have not the slightest fear that the charleston Convention will adopt a platform unacceptable to the Southern in regard, it as hardly a bare possibility that an individual will be nominated we could not freely and heartily support. But even if this should be the case, we shall do as far to pursue the course dictated by principle, as we had indicated in years of previous controversy on the subject.

We know that our opinions or the course we might think proper to pursue is a matter of but little consequence, but we have the thought that what we have said above in reference to our opinions and purposes, due to our worthy patrons and friends.

We sincerely hope that harmony may prevail in the Convention & a spirit of compromise and concession, not as to vital principle, but relative to the claims of individuals, may pervade the whole party North and South.

CONFIRMED.—A writer in the Advertiser & Gazette of the 31st ult. truly says: "In the opinion of Speaker of the House, it has been contended in Alabama, for several years to alternate between North & South Alabama."

Now, sir, without wishing to displease the claim of any gentleman, from either of these sections, whose name has been suggested in connection with the honorable and responsible position of Speaker of the House, I desire to enter a protest against theingular sequence of a custom which entirely ignores the existence of such localities in East and West Alabama."

Gentlemen of enlarged legislative experience will represent both of these sections in fact, at no preceding session, nor at any subsequent session for years, have either of them been chosen to represent East & West Alabama, than for the coming session.

Allow me then, sir, to suggest the name of the Hon. Thos. B. Cooper, of the Representatives from East Alabama, as also, another worthy the high position sought for others, by their friends. Mr. C. is no novice in parliamentary proceedings—he has represented the County of Cherokee before, and the number of times he was called to the chair, while a member, by the presiding officer—his uniform courtesy—his promptness in decisions—his firmness and energy—all combine in deeming him eminently worthy the office of Speaker of the next House.

Mr. C. is one of those "old line whigs," who seeing the truth, abandoned his old party associations—and the democracy—is a democratic representative from an avowedly democratic county—and is wholly committed to the defense of democratic principles.

ALABAMA.—We are rejoiced to learn that our old native State, Alabama says the Eldorado (Ark.) Times, has again proven true to herself and Southern Rights—has again administered a sound spanking to the unruly and refractory compositionists, by sending an entire delegation to Congress in behalf of the recent election. Every District elected a Democrat. The contest in the 2nd District was as it has been for several years animated and close. That District has been represented by two last terms by Hon. J. F. Dowell and whom a son and more talented Southern Rights man cannot be found in the State. This year Mr. Dowell retires, and David Clapton—a staunch Democrat—was nominated in his stead and has been elected by a handsome majority over Tom Judge, one of the most talented Opposition speakers in the State. This is the second time Mr. Judge has been defeated in that District; and we presume, unless his faith in the charm of a third trial is unshaken, he will retire to the "shades of private life."

But the result in no District in State gives more satisfaction than that of the "bloody Seventh" in the election of Hon. J. L. M. Curry. Sampson W. Harris—an excellent man, has for several years been the Representative of this District. He died in 57 and his place was supplied by Mr. Curry who has been elected for the two last terms, without opposition—He is a young man, perhaps not over thirty-five—but a man whose extraordinary talents, and Southern Rights principles and many straightforward course in Congress, has endeared him to and so completely won the confidence of his constituency that it would be hard, indeed, to fill his place, and an impossibility to defeat him.

The attraction of persons who may wish to purchase Goods, is invited to the advertisement of Messrs. Smith & Self. These gentlemen have had a stock of goods, purchased in New York on advantageous terms, selected with care, nearly double what they ever had before. We know they are anxious to increase their trade and business, and for this purpose will give good bargains to their customers. Not to mention other departments, we can state from personal knowledge, that their stock of Boots, Shoes and Brogans, Hats, Caps, &c., is very large, of good quality and offered cheaper than any we have seen priced. If you want to be perfectly satisfied that they will give you good bargains just go and examine and price their goods.

The attraction of persons who may wish to purchase a valuable tract of land are referred to the advertisement of Mr. G. C. Mattison, Adm'r. of the Estate of George Mattison, deceased. The tract offered is large, advantageously situated on the road from Oxford to Talladega, & is one of the most valuable in the County. It will soon have the advantage of a rail road passing immediately by it.

Important from Salt Lake City.
St. Louis, Sept. 15.

We have received Salt Lake papers of the 17th ultimo. They are filled with outrages in the Mormon country. Superintendent Forney reports that from the information which he has acquired in relation to the recent Indian massacre, in which six men and one woman were killed, and six men and one little girl wounded, he is led to believe that butchery was instigated by white men. Statements have been made, under oath, to the effect that white men were engaged with the Indians in the work of slaughter.

Capt. Simpson of the Topographical Engineers, has made a report a new route to California, the result of which is that there is a saving of three hundred miles over the Nauvoo and St. Mary's river route.

Lloyd Pike was assassinated by a Mormon named Spencer, while attending court at Salt Lake. The affair created an intense excitement there.

The assassination of Frank McNeill and Sergeant Pike is believed to have been done by order of Brigham Young.

The Mormons declare that the Gentiles elected to the Legislature shall not take their seats.

In a battle between Guy's company of dragoons and a party of Shoshone Indians the enemy was repulsed with the loss of thirty killed.

The Apache and Comanche Indians were becoming quite troublesome along the route.

The Treaty with Mexico.

The following are the concessions said to have been obtained by the reported treaty with Mexico:

1. Rights of way across the northern States of Mexico, and ports on the Gulf of California, with guarantees for protection and safety.

2. Rights of way and valuable privileges of transit across the Isthmus of Tehuantepec.

3. The privileges of creating and maintaining warehouses at the termini of the several transit routes.

4. The right of transporting troops and munitions of war over such routes, and to send troops to protect them in default of Mexico not fulfilling that duty.

5. Free entry and transit of goods belonging to American citizens in Arizona, through the ports of the Gulf of California, and across Sonora.

6. Entire and unquestionable freedom of religious opinions and worship throughout the Republic.

A clause indicating the willingness of the Mexican Government to accept a modified protocol at the hands of the United States, in order to postpone whenever the United States shall signify its willingness to enter into such engagements.

At Father Point, September 12.—The steam ship Jugla Star.—Captain Ballantyne arrived at Father Point from Liverpool, with intelligence to August 31. The commercial news she brings has been anticipated by the Ocean Queen.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.—A late

Berne telegram reports that the Conference at Zurich were contradictory.

There was every reason to believe that the Sardinian Plenipotentiary would not affix his signature to any protocol favoring the return of the deposed Duke.

The Paris correspondent of the Times states that private conferences continue to be held, but nothing has been accomplished, and the Conference was expected to dissolve in a few days.

The choice will probably be between a general Congress or war.

LEWIS' proposition in relation to the Great Eastern had been declined.

The ship would leave the Thames in a day or two.

LEIGH HENTZ is dead.

The Constitution's leaders say that the Emperor will fill his Villa Franscisco.
